Saturday 26th March - Tuesday 29th March

The village of St Agnes, a popular coastal tourist spot, lies on a main road between Redruth and Perranporth. It was a prehistoric and modern centre for mining of copper, tin and arsenic until the 1920s. Local industry has also included farming and fishing, and more recently tourism.

Day 1 Travel to St Agnes and our Hotel The 3 Star Rosemundy House Hotel. We will be stopping at Buckfastleigh Abbey for time to explore this magnificent Benedictine monastery and have lunch in the Restaurant before arriving at our hotel late afternoon.

Day 2 After breakfast we travel to The beautiful town of Marazion, set on the shores of Mount's Bay, which has long been a hot favourite for tourism in West Cornwall with its view of St Michaels Mount then we travel the short distance to Penzance for our lunch stop with time to wander the shops and harbour before returning to our hotel mid afternoon

Day 3 Today we are off to the town of St Ives known for its picturesque views and its history as a fishing port, today its better known for its Artist galleries and of course the Tate gallery. No trip to Cornwall is complete without visiting Lands End before returning to our hotel

Day 4 Homeward bound today a scenic drive to the fishing village of Boscastle devastated in the flood of 2004 this village has been rebuilt and has become a thriving tourist attraction. We continue our journey home via Barnstaple For late lunch stop with time to wonder around the pannier market before returning home late afternoon.
